Board Appointment Update

The Hollard Insurance Company Pty Ltd (Hollard) announced today its appointment of Non-Executive Director, Kate Burleigh, with effect from 1 October 2023.

Founder and Director of Hollard, Richard Enthoven said: “I am delighted to welcome Kate to the Hollard Board. Kate brings a wealth of executive and board experience spanning a range of industries including Digital, Technology, Media, Telecommunications, Education, Retail, Enterprise, and Consumer lifestyle sectors. She brings 25+ years’ experience working in leading edge global technology companies including most recently as Country Manager, Amazon Alexa where she led the team in the developing field of conversational AI and prior to that as Managing Director at Intel Australia/NZ from 2011 – 2017. During that time her achievements included impressive business and revenue growth.

Kate’s business leadership experience uniquely combines technology innovation, marketing, business development and a customer-first focus. These will consolidate existing Board expertise and further enable Hollard’s ongoing technology transformation and infrastructure re-platforming.

Ms Burleigh said: “I’m looking forward to accompanying Hollard on the next phase of its evolution in what is a dynamic and evolving financial services landscape with a committed team and Board.

The Hollard Board welcomes Ms Burleigh’s appointment and looks forward to leveraging her deep expertise to lead the business into its next chapter in partnership with several iconic Australian brands.
